

18th Annual Meeting of ACRAA

Tokyo, December 7, 2018 – The Association of Credit Rating Agencies in Asia (ACRAA), a network of 28 credit rating agencies from 13 jurisdictions in Asia, held their 18th Annual Meeting in Tokyo.

2. Member rating agencies, recognizing the challenging environment of worsening external financing conditions as well as elevated corporate debt levels in many emerging market economies, noted the need for them to be even more vigilant than before in monitoring the soundness of the corporate sector.

3. In the meeting, the members reviewed ACRAA’s activities, achievements and challenges faced during the past year. Below are listed ACRAA’s major activities in 2018:

ACRAA: Major Activities in 2018

Apr	International Seminar on “Showcasing Asian Bond Markets: Opportunities and Risks” (Bahrain)
Jun	Training Workshop cooperated with the ABA ¹ on “Bank Rating & Analysis” (Taipei)
Sep	Training Workshop on “Infrastructure Projects: Their Evaluation and Financing” (Manila)
Dec	Publication of “Asia Credit Rating Guidebook – 2018 Update”
	International Seminar on “Showcasing Asia’s Green Bond Markets” (Tokyo)

4. At the meeting members welcomed the publication of “Asia Credit Rating Guidebook – 2018 Update”, which outlines the Regulatory rating requirements in Asia and a profile of credit rating agencies in Asia.² We believe that this publication is a positive output of the collaboration amongst ACRAA members, for which ACRAA plays a pivotal coordinating role.

5. ACRAA members endorsed continuing to pursue its three strategic priorities in 2019:

- (i) to raise the global visibility of the member rating agencies responding to increased cross-border investment across Asia (e.g. hold another seminar for cross border investors);
- (ii) to continue and strengthen ACRAA’s flagship joint training programs (e.g. hold at least two workshops on timely topics that suit the needs of members)
- (iii) to deepen cooperation with the ABA and EACRA.¹

6. The next Annual Meeting, which will hold elections for board members, will take place in Manila in Nov-Dec 2019.

(About ACRAA)

ACRAA was established on 14 September 2001 by 15 Asian credit rating agencies from 10 jurisdictions at the Asian Development Bank headquarters, Metro Manila. This was a pioneering event that brought together domestic credit rating agencies in a regional cooperative effort.

ACRAA objectives are:

- To develop and maintain cooperative efforts that promote interaction and exchange of ideas, experiences, information, knowledge and skills among credit rating agencies in Asia and that would enhance their capabilities and their role of providing reliable market information.
- To undertake activities aimed at promoting the adoption of best practices and common standards that ensure high quality and comparability of credit ratings throughout the region, following the highest norms of ethics and professional conduct.
- To undertake activities aimed at promoting the development of Asia's bond markets and cross-border investment throughout the region.

As of December 2018, ACRAA has 28 members from 13 jurisdictions (See ACRAA's website for the directory (<http://acraa.com/acraamembers.asp>)).
